

Stone Hammer

<https://collections.kitimatmuseum.ca/en/permalink/artifact951>

Object Type:	Purchased
Quantity:	1
Description:	Stone hammer is grey. Has a groove throughout the circumference of the center, possibly as a hand gripping point or to wrap a binding component around (rope/twine).
Physical Condition:	poor
Culture:	Haisla
Condition Remarks:	Looks well used.
Height:	9.5
Width:	6.5
Length:	14
Accession Number:	977.20
Category:	Construction T&E
Location:	Settling the Valley, Cabinet 1 Drawer 2
Place of Manufacture:	Canada

🗨 No comments yet — Join the discussion

Postcard

<https://collections.kitimatmuseum.ca/en/permalink/artifact9150>

GMD:	Writing Media
Object Type:	Postcard, Picture
Description:	Photo postcard with image of a large Christmas dinner. Taken in the cafeteria/mess hall of a construction camp. Dinner includes two suckling pigs pulling a sleigh laden with roast turkey. A doll is also riding the sleigh, and there is plenty of other food on the table around it.
Physical Condition:	Good
Material:	paper
Height:	14cm
Width:	9cm
Inscriptions:	Note on back of postcard reads: "Note Two sucking pigs pulling sleigh laden with roast turkey - we are in the heart of the mountains but xmas. Chappie
Accession Number:	2022.8
Biographical Notes:	Lynn Beckett's father was a civil engineer and often received correspondence from fellow engineers across Canada and abroad. He is described as quirky and funny, and exemplified what his daughter saw in construction camp chefs trying to do for staff who could not go home.
Category:	Written Communication T&E
Location:	Bay 1 Shelf 2 Box 3
Place of Manufacture:	Canada

🗨 No comments yet — Join the discussion